Please also pray for all that are in need, materially and spiritually, those that have suffered and died at the hands of others, those that have been affected by recent natural disasters and all of our dear friends and neighbors that have asked for our prayerful support.

◆ Oops! We need to make a correction! Last weekend, we congratulated Michael Joseph “Ragan”, and his parents on Michael’s Baptism the Sunday prior. Although “Ragan” is a very proud lineage name of the family, it is not Michael’s last name. Michael’s correct last name is “Thetard”. Having said that, we want to congratulate Michael Joseph Thetard on his recent Baptism here at Sacred Heart, and welcome him, his mom Kate, and dad Pete as the newest members of Sacred Heart Parish! Again...we hope you will be very happy here...and we hope you will accept our sincere apologies on the error!

◆ Word of Life - “It is the LORD who goes before you; he will be with you and will never fail you or forsake you. So do not fear or be dismayed.” - Deut. 31:8 (NABRE © 2010 CCD. Use with permission.)

◆ Stewardship - August 23, 2015 - Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time - “In today’s first reading, Joshua gives the ancient Israelites a choice to either serve his God, the God of Israel, or pagan gods. He boldly proclaims, As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord. In St. John’s Gospel, many disciples cannot accept Jesus’ teaching on the everlasting gift of His Body and Blood. Christ asks the Apostles if they, too, wish to leave Him and return to their former way of life. Simon-Peter professes that Jesus has the words of eternal life; where else would they go? Serving the Lord as His disciple is challenging. St. Paul, in his Letter to the Ephesians, likens Christ’s relationship with the Church to the marital relationship between husband and wife. Following Christ’s will has a definite cost, but He assures us of His strength to accept that cost.”
