- ◆ Word of Life - "When a patient says I don't want to be a burden, it may really be a question, Am I a burden? ...when a patient says I might as well be dead, he may really be saying No one cares about me. Many studies show that assisted suicide requests are almost always for such psychological or social reasons." - "Life Matters: Doctor-Assisted Death" - 2013-14 Respect Life Program - USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities (www.goo.gl/O6eC2K).
- ◆ Courtesy of the Diocese of Springfield...some thoughts during this Jubilee Year of Mercy - June 5, 2016 - "Raising the dead. There are two stories, three really, of someone coming back from death at the hand of another. Although I might not see myself bringing an unbreathing boy or dead man back among the living as Jesus or Elijah did, I can keep vigil with the dying and with those who mourn them. What great mercy work! The third story is more metaphorical. Paul, who first persecuted the young Church, then was knocked off his horse by the living Christ, spent three years in solitude listening and praying and taking guidance from God. Paul withdrew for a needed time and, refreshed by God, came back stronger to do God's work. *How will I carve out some time this week to listen to and be with God? *Who is dying and needs my visit and prayer? *Who is grieving and needs my presence and my comfort? Psalm 30, the proper one for today, sings of God's rescue.
