- ◆ Please remember in your prayers all the deceased of our parish and communities, all of our nursing home residents and those living alone, all those that are battling illness, along with their families and care givers, all of the brave and selfless men and women serving in the armed forces, their families and all of the innocent souls affected by war. Please also pray for all that are in need, materially and spiritually, those that have suffered and died at the hands of others, those that have been affected by recent natural disasters and all of our dear friends and neighbors that have asked for our prayerful support.
- ◆ Please turn off all electronic devices before Mass begins. Thank you.
- ◆ Regarding the special World Mission Collection today.... “TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY! In announcing his decision to declare a Holy Year of Mercy, Pope Francis said, ‘Dear brothers and sisters, I have often thought about how the Church might make clear its mission of being a witness to mercy.’ Supporting the young churches throughout the world with your prayers and generous gifts is indeed a merciful witness of this mission. The collection today will help missionaries offer the poor of these areas practical help as they share the mercy of God. It will ensure the development of local dioceses, and support the work of priests, religious and lay leaders who serve those on the margins and in most need. Extend your merciful witness to the whole world through your gift in today’s collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith!”
- ◆ Congrats to parishioner Bobbi Brockman...the Oct. 15th and first $50.00 WATCH (We Are The Church) raffle winner!!! - ◆ Word of Life - “The dying process is a sacred time - a final season to seek closure in this life and prepare for the next in the hope of sharing in Christ’s Resurrection.” - “Caring for Loves One’s at Life’s End,” - www.goo.go/fvSEYp - USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities.
- ◆ Courtesy of the Diocese of Springfield...some thoughts during this Jubilee Year of Mercy - October 23, 2016 - “Who am I kidding? If I would do all the right things for the wrong reason, would they still count? Probably not. Would God care? Most likely, yes! The Gospel paints this picture. The boasting person at prayer: I fast, I pray, I tithe, I am faithful - I am not like ‘him’ ... (and everyone see this about me). But the humble one prays: I am far from perfect, I sin - be full of mercy. The Old Testament reading sheds more light. Be like God, Sirach says. Attend to the poor, the widow, the orphan (anyone in need), God says. Look to them. Care for them. It is right and just behavior. *How will I boast, not in myself, but in the Lord? *How will I behave? Whom will I help?”
