- ◆ Stewardship - September 6, 2015 - Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time - “The passage from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah foreshadows the mighty deeds Christ will accomplish, the most significant of which is the means for our salvation. The Gospel passage from St. Mark cites a powerful healing performed by Jesus in Gentile territory. Together with the Letter of St. James, it is clear God does not discriminate about who is invited into the Christian community, and neither should we. Good stewards acknowledge that all who embrace the Lord as His disciples are welcome into His Kingdom.”
