- Please remember in your prayers all the deceased of our parish and communities, all of our nursing home residents and those living alone, all those that are battling illness, along with their families and care givers, all of the brave and selfless men and women serving in the armed forces, their families and all of the innocent souls affected by war. Please also pray for all that are in need, materially and spiritually, those that have suffered and died at the hands of others, those that have been affected by recent natural disasters, all first responders, and all of our dear friends and neighbors that have asked for our prayerful support.
- Please turn off all electronic devices before Mass begins. Thank you.
- Second Collection this morning - Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered mission territories because they are unable to fund essential pastoral activities needed in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

This is strictly a friendly visit; no homecare duties are involved. Volunteers who meet income eligibility guidelines will receive a tax-free hourly stipend and a mileage reimbursement for time spent with clients. - Word of Life – “People often say, ‘I could never handle a child with a disability.’ But the beauty of parenting is that you aren’t given a child with a disability. You are given your child with a disability. Your child enters the world in a relationship with you, and that changes everything. You are not called to ‘handle’ a disability You are called to love a particular person, and caring for him or her grows out of that love.” – USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities – “A Perfect Gift” – respectlife.org/a-perfect-gift.
- Stewardship – April 30, 2023 – Fourth Sunday of Easter – (Compliments of the Diocese of Dodge City, KS) - “Jesus says, ‘I came that they may have life and have it to the full.’ Good stewards are grateful for the gift of life and joyfully share their abundance with others.”
