- Please remember in your prayers all the deceased of our parish and communities, all of our nursing home residents and those living alone, all those that are battling illness, along with their families and care givers, all of the brave and selfless men and women serving in the armed forces, their families and all of the innocent souls affected by war. Please also pray for all that are in need, materially and spiritually, those that have suffered and died at the hands of others, those that have been affected by recent natural disasters, all first responders, and all of our dear friends and neighbors that have asked for our prayerful support.
  - Please turn off all electronic devices before Mass begins. Thank you.
  - The Savior briefly became one of us so that, having attained the promised immortality, we would live with Him forever. Such is the grace of the heavenly mysteries, such a gift of Passover, such a longed-for annual celebration, such a beginning of the restoration of everything.
Happy Easter! Wesolego Alleluja!
Fr. Stanley
  - Little White Books for Easter are available in the back of the church for anyone who would like one. If you know of someone who would also enjoy a little spiritual lift, please take one and pass it along!
  - Anyone who would like to take Holy Water home with them is more than welcome to do so! We still have some containers here at church that you can use (look for a basket in the back of the church). Holy Water is always available to anyone who would like it!
  - A word from Bishop Hicks regarding next Sunday’s second collection...“April 2022 - Dear Friends, On the weekend of April 23-24, our diocese will take up a second collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Home mission dioceses are those dioceses in the United States and its territories that need outside help to provide basic pastoral services, such as the Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters and laypeople. These dioceses often face fragile financial situations, vast distances or difficult terrain. Nearly 40% of the dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions. We are one Catholic Church. What happens to one of us, affects us all. As Pope Francis notes in Fratelli Tutti, “we need to develop the awareness that nowadays we are either all saved together or no one is saved.” (Paragraph 137). Let us remember our brothers and sisters in Christ in home mission dioceses so they may share fully in our Catholic faith. Paz y bien, Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks, Bishop of Joliet.”
  - A word from our current CCD Coordinator Luri Maier-Lorntz ...“ No CCD classes on April 17th. Our last family Mass and our last CCD class is April 24th. We are in need of a CCD coordinator beginning our 2022/2023 CCD year. We need parents to start looking ahead to volunteer to become teachers. Please contact Lin ((815-237-2230) or myself (Luri 260-668-9498) with any questions. We have no First Communion Class this year.”

  - Word of Life – “Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, ‘God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end’ (Spe salvi 31).” – USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities – “Respect Life Reflection: Christ Our Hope in Every Season of Life” (Citing Pope Benedict XVI, Spe salvi © 2007, Libreria Editrice Vaticana.   - Stewardship – April 17, 2022 – Easter Sunday – (Compliments of the Diocese of Dodge City, KS) - “In the second reading today, St. Paul reminds the Colossians that they have been raised with Christ, exhorting them to ‘be intent on the things above rather than on earth.’ We too, have been raised with Christ. Let us rejoice and be glad!”
