YOUR Action—To LOOK is one thing. To SEE what you look at is another. To UNDERSTAND what you see is a third. To LEARN from what you understand is something else. BUT, to ACT on what you learn is what really matters, Isn't IT?

Thank you for your generosity with the relief efforts for those affected by Hurricane Matthew.

Closing the Mercy Door. Pope Francis set this day, 13 November, as the day to close diocesan Mercy Doors. That does not mean, however, that God will stop being merciful. And it surely does not mean that we have done enough, that we can stop doing mercy. These mercy works, these mercy words help broaden our focus from "only me and only mine" to "always us and always ours". Such words pave the way to heaven.

- How will my heart remain open?
- How will my words match my works?
- How will my hands offer help?

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 12/13, 2016

In today's gospel Jesus tells his followers there will be plenty of time for them to bear witness to what he taught and did. He helped them understand that the Holy Spirit would guide them and help them persevere in their own stewardship of his gospel even when friends and family betrayed them. Do our friends and neighbors, or classmates and col-leagues, know we are disciples of Jesus Christ? How do we bear witness to Christ each day? Do we hide our faith out of fear of rejection? Or are we bold in our witness to others? Are we good stewards of Christ's gospel?
