Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of June 4/5, 2016

Saint Paul begins today's second reading by stating that he was "called" to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As baptized Catholics who have an opportunity to share in Christ's life through the Eucharist regularly, we too are called to proclaim the teachings of Christ. We are stewards of Christ's Gospel. But how are we responding to that call? Do we listen for the guidance of the Holy Spirit? Do we evade, dodge or ignore the Lord's call? Do we attempt to proclaim the Gospel in a spirit of compassion and love? Reflect on how you exercise stewardship over the Gospel.

Raising the dead. There are two stories, three really, of someone coming back from death at the hand of another. Although I might not see myself bringing an unbreathing boy or dead man back among the living as Jesus or Elijah did, I can keep vigil with the dying and with those who mourn them. What great mercy work! The third story is more metaphorical. Paul, who first persecuted the young Church, then was knocked off his horse by the living Christ, spent three years in solitude listening and praying and taking guidance from God. Paul withdrew for a needed time and, refreshed by God, came back stronger to do God's work.

- How will I carve out some time this week to listen to and be with God?
- Who is dying and needs my visit and my prayer?
- Who is grieving and needs my presence and my com-
