Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 27 Oct. 2019

Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18. Psalm 34:2-3, 17-18, 19, 23. 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18. Luke 18:9-14.

God hears. God hears everyone – proud and humble, pushy and contrite. But God wants us to be as the latter in both sets – humble and contrite. Shooting off my mouth and lauding my own good deeds can get in the way of righteous action. We still want to be generous, honest, and fair. We should just let God do the noticing! How will I be less pushy and humble? How can my prayer be filled with "I love you, God, for _____?" How must my prayer say, "I am sorry for _____?"

All Saints, Solemnity – Friday, 01 November 2019

Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14. Psalm 24:1-2, 3-4, 5-6. 1 John 3:1-3. Matthew 5:1-12a.

Saints named and unnamed. Every year we hear the same readings. Every year we give praise for those who have gone before us in faith – saints known and unknown. Pope Francis urges us to look to the saints next door – those people of good will who strive to be good, to be human, and, yes, to be holy. What will the saint next door teach me about living holy life?

Undy Sunday—Thank you to all our parishioners who brought donations for Undy Sunday and for making a difference in the lives of the poor and vulnerable in our community!

November is the time when we remember our deceased relatives and friends. There is an envelope in your offertory box where you can list any and all those you would like to have to be remembered in prayer. Father Stanley will place these envelopes on the Altar and pray for each person at every Daily Mass and Weekend Mass and they will remain there the entire month of November. We begin our remembrance on November 2, the Feast of All Souls. We continue to remember them during the entire month.
