This year, Father's Day is celebrated on June 16. There will be a special collection taken at Masses on June 15-16 to care for our infirmed and senior priests. The Fund for Diocesan Infirmed and Elderly Priests is a special way for the people of the Diocese of Joliet to express their concern for the welfare of those who have dedicated their lives in service to our pastoral care. The money in this fund goes toward priests who need help with extraordinary medical expenses or suffer a catastrophic illness. It also provides for the care of the St. John Vianney Villa, home to several senior priests in the Diocese of Joliet. Prayerfully consider making a donation to help our aged and sick priests as an expression of appreciation for all they have done in exemplifying Christ's mercy, through their spiritual guidance and celebration of the sacraments.

Father's Day Tribute – Here are some timely sentiments about DAD – yours and mine as we say thanks for all the things, big and small, he has done for us throughout the year and years: Fathers are Wonderful People, too little understood. And we do not sing their praises, as often as we should. For, somehow, Fathers seem to be, The man who pays the bills, while mother binds up little hurts and nurses all our ills. Father struggles daily to live up to "His Image." As protector and provider, "Hero of the scrimmage." And perhaps this is the reason, we sometimes get the notion that Fathers are not subject to the thing we call emotion. But if, you look inside Dad's heart, you know, where no one else can see...You'll find he's sentimental, and as "soft" as he can be. But he's so busy every day in the business of the grueling race of life, that waits and respects no one, He just leaves a sentimental stuff to his partner, the wife. Fathers are just wonderful people in a million different ways, they merit loving compliments and accolades of praises for the only reason Dad aspires to fortune and success, is to make the family proud of him and to bring them happiness. And like our Heavenly Father, he's a guardian and a guide, Someone that we can count on to be always on our side!

Happy Father's Day to all Fathers!

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity – 16 June 2019

Proverbs 8:22-31. Psalm 8:4-5, 6-7, 8-9. Romans 5:1-5. John 16:12-15.

Giving glory to God. In the daily prayer of the Church – the five to seven times for prayer in the Liturgy of the Hours (or Divine Office) – every psalm and canticle that is sung ends with this doxology:

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever. Amen.

Oh, that every word from our own mouths would in big and little ways give God glory!

- What first words will I speak at waking to sing the praise of God?
- How will I give thanks to Father-Son-Spirit throughout the day?
- What last words will I speak at bedtime?
