July 4th – Declaration of Dependence- America...Our Declaration of Independence was in reality a declaration of dependence on God. Even our money we keep telling ourselves and the whole world: In God We Trust. Today many of our problems as a nation can be traced to the fact that we are forgetting our God. Over half the American people have no church affiliation. Christ has been ruled out of our classrooms. How, then, can we expect our boys and girls to grow up believing God? In this age of adultery our divorce courts make mockery of marriage. In 1776 our nation believed what God told us: "Unless the board builds the house (of America), they labor in vain who built it.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 30 June 2019

1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21. Psalm 16:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11. Galatians 5:1, 13-18. Luke 9:51-62.

Traveling to Jerusalem. Today, Saint Luke tells us that Jesus travels, that is, "sets his face" toward Jerusalem. On the way, he challenges three more people about following him. And from this Chapter 9 to the end of the gospel, Jesus is always turned toward his destiny. Our journey in faith is also to Jerusalem – heaven, our lasting home.

- What challenge does Jesus give me about following?
- Who will I stop following so I can follow Jesus home?
- How will I "set my face" toward heaven in each thought, word, and deed?
