Remember in Prayer our deceased relatives and friends, the ill of our parish and community, nursing home residents, the homeless, hungry and unemployed, those living alone and our own special intentions we hold deep in our hearts. Keep in prayer all men and women serving our country, the injured and those being held prisoners. Let us not forget all men and women who gave up their lives so that we may live in freedom and peace!

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 21 July 2019

Genesis 18:1-10a. Psalm 15:2-3, 3-4, 5. Colossians 1:24-28. Luke 10:38-42.

Being Martha and Mary. Martha is burdened. Since she and Jesus are friends, she has no trouble telling Jesus, not unkindly, what to do about her sister’s behavior. Service, discipleship is important. Good for Martha. But Mary frets less. Jesus urges a balance in our attention between serving him and listening to him. The latter informs the former.

- How will I carve out time this day to listen to Jesus?
- How will my listening spill into action?
- How will my action be filled with mercy work?
