November is the time when we remember our deceased relatives and friends. There is an envelope in your offertory box where you can list any and all those you would like to have to be remembered in prayer. Father Stanley will place these envelopes on the Altar and pray for each person at every Daily Mass, Weekend Mass and Rosary recited on Tuesday evenings and they will remain there the entire month of November. We begin our remembrance on November 2, the Feast of All Souls. We continue to remember them during the entire month. Candles for All Souls Day are available at the back of our Church. We are asking $5 donation per candle.

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls) – Saturday, 02 November 2019

There are at least 31 readings that may be used in the three celebrations today – too many to list here. Here are four: Isaiah 25:6, 79. Psalm 23. Romans 4:7-9, 10c-12. Luke 24:13-16, 28-35.

All Souls. We do not fear to focus on death. We pray for the living, true. We also pray for the dead. We want everyone to be with God for ever. In our praying for the dead now, it is our hope and belief that others will pray for us after our own death.

- How will I make time this day to pray for the dead I have known and loved?

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time – 03 November 2019

Wisdom 11:22–12:2. Psalm 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13, 14. 2 Thessalonians 1:11–2:2. Luke 19:1-10.

Up a tree. In the reading from Wisdom, we hear that God loves everything and everyone. And on them, God shows mercy. In the parable, we hear a story filled with details. Zacchaeus is wealthy, hated, undignified, and short. But Jesus turns his life around by saying, come down from your tree and take me to dinner at your house. Do it "today". And Zacchaeus changes his behavior by becoming generous beyond belief.

- How will I treat this earth and the people on this earth today?
- Where will I go today and what will I climb to see Jesus in action?
- What will I do today to be generous?
