Loveoutreach will be having their 4th annual Human Trafficking Awareness walk and fundraiser in Morris on Saturday, July 27th at 11 AM. There's a flyer and a sign up sheet in the back of the church with more information. We'll walk on Rt. 47 from Remax Realty on Waverly Street to the courthouse where we'll have several speakers on hand. Please come walk with us or meet us at the courthouse, sit in the shade, and learn things. Remember this nightmare is happening in our small towns as well as the big cities. Donations are awesome - we need them to keep our work going, but getting the word out is our mission. Please remember, also, that if you ever see someone in need of our services, please let us know. We can help. We all need to keep our eyes and ears open. Thank you all for your support and hope to see you on the 27th. Donna Gabehart 237-8202 or gabehartdonna@hotmail.com.

"Life with God is not immunity from difficulties, but peace in difficulties." - C. S. Lewis Deuteronomy 30:10-14. Psalm 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37. OR Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 11. Colossians 1:15-20. Luke 10:25-37.

Loving means acting. In the First Reading, Moses pleads for us to heed the voice of God - it is not that hard. In the Gospel, a scholar poses two worthy questions to Jesus. How do I get to heaven? What do I do and with whom do I do it to get there? Jesus tells a story to provoke suitable answers. The good Samaritan, this good foreigner, puts the natives to shame. He has the right motive - compassion. It causes him to act with mercy.

- When will I set aside time each day to heed God's voice?
- What will I do and not do to keep my sights on heaven?
- Since to love is to act, whom will I treat with mercy today?
