Word of Life--"Throughout salvation history, God has welcomed repentant sinners with special joy. Jesus concludes the parable of the lost sheep with these words: 'there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance' (Lk 15:7)." Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time - 15 Sept.
 Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14. Psalm 51:3-4, 12-13, 17, 19. 1 Timothy 1:12-17. Luke 15:1-32.

Welcoming sinners and eating with them. Some will be shocked at whom we are called to hang around. Lost sheep. Ungrateful children. Sinners, the less than perfect, the prodigal. People just like us, if truth be told. The Church is not a place for the perfect. We are charged to be perfect, true. But perfection is found in God alone. That is why we hang around those who hang around Jesus and strive to be like him.

- Whom will I welcome?
- What lost sheep will I go after?
- What seemingly ungrateful person will I look for, welcome back, and embrace?

Try to put in the hearts of your children a love for home. Make them long to be with their families. So much sin could be avoided if our people really loved their homes.
