ASSUMPTION of Mary –Why was Mary’s body received into heaven instead of remaining in the earth like the rest of mankind? The grave had no power over one who was immaculate. Her flesh could not see corruption. Her body had been overshadowed by the Holy Ghost; it had been the sacred temple in which had dwelt God Incarnate, and so it had a claim to ascent whether the body of her Son had already gone before. But the chief reason was that, as she had shared in each detail in the sorrows and agony of her Son, so it was right that she should take part in His triumph. To her it was due that she should without delay enter into the joy of her Lord, her Son, her God. O happy Mary! What were all her dolours compared with the joy of that first moment in heaven! How light are all our sorrows compared with the eternal weight of glory prepared for us!

Word of Life–“Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief, but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique.”

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 14 August 2022
Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10. Psalm 40:2, 3, 4, 18. Hebrews 12:1-4. Luke 12:49-53.

Why Does Jesus Jar the Crowds? He startles us today by announcing his baptism by fire (his coming Passion and Death). And he further reminds us that our own Baptism empowers us to undertake something new. Discipleship. It is constantly learning anew how to live in this world as preparation for living forever in the next. But we do this not alone. The writer of Hebrews reminds us we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses.

- What surprise does Jesus present?
- Whom will I want to surround me? Why?
- What discipleship work does Baptism empower me to do today?

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Solemnity – not a day of obligation this year [USA]

At the Vigil Mass – Sunday evening, 14 August 2022
1 Chronicles 15:3-4, 15-16; 16:1-2. Psalm 132:6-7, 9-10, 13-14. 1 Corinthians 15:54b-57. Luke 11:27-28.

Mass during the Day – Monday, 15 August 2022
Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab. Psalm 45:10, 11, 12, 16. 1 Corinthians 15:20-27. Luke 1:39-56.

Why Is Death Not the End of Us? Though not a holyday of obligation this year in the USA because it falls on Monday, the Assumption of Mary remains important. She teaches us to face death this way – falling asleep in the Lord – one more way to proclaim the greatness of the Lord.

How am I preparing for my own death this day?
