News & Upcoming Events

Labor Day– Dignity of Labor—On the first Monday in September, America celebrates Labor Day. It is a day of parades, picnics and political speeches, a time when we recognize the millions of Americans who make up this nation’s work force. Labor Day means traditions to some, a holiday to others. Just what is it we are celebrating? Why does labor deserve such recognition? Throughout America’s history, we have recognized the importance of labor. From its inception, this nation has been dedicated to the principle of work. The labor of millions of men and women has brought unequalled prosperity to our land. Only as we recognize and maintain the value of true, hard work can we remain a strong and determined people. Someone has said that there are three kinds of people: those who make things happen, those who watch things happen, those who have no idea what happened. Today we need fewer watchers and more doers! King Solomon said, “Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might. “God’s principle for man is work. God tends for us to work.

The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Feast day: Sep 08
The Catholic Church celebrates today the birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary on its traditional fixed date of September 8, nine months after the December 8 celebration of her Immaculate Conception as the child of Saints Joachim and Anne.

"Accustom yourself continually to make many acts of love, for they enkindle and melt the soul."

What Does It Take to Be a Disciple? Jesus is relentlessly traveling to Jerusalem. He urges the following crowds to be relentless disciples. How? (1) Be loyal to me and my Father. (2) Carry your own cross – every day. (3) Don’t let possessions get in the way.

- What does my loyalty to God expect of me?
- What cross will I carry today, tomorrow, and each day this week?
- What of my possessions will I share in merciful ways?
